
Points below the dashed line are underestimates (early maintenance); points above are overestimates (late).